HENRY VILLARD IS DEAD.

Career of Great Financier and Rail road Magnate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12 .- Henry Villard, the financier, died this morning at his summer home, Thornwood Park, of apoplexy. The funeral will take place from the New York residence Wednesday af-

Mr. Villard was born in Renish Bavaria in 1835. He came to America in 1850 and changed his name from Hilgard to Villard. He became a newspaper reparter in Believille, Illinois, and in 1881. he had acquired the New York Evening Post and the Nation.

He began his railroad career in 1871, after a visit to Europe, by buying for the German bondholders the property of the Oregon and California Railroad Company and the Oregon Steamship Company, being made president in 1875. He neted as em of the receivers of the Kausas Pacific Railroad Company and later bought up the bonds of the road. He later becarge interested in the Oregon Stemm Navigation Company and the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, of which he became president and then Satured the Oregon and Transcontinental with which he merged the two other companies to a so-called blind pool with the Northern Pacific, being chosen president of the latter company,

A few years later the companies in which he was interested became so involved that there was a collapse, in which he suffered very heavily. Returning to Germany, he formed new financial clastions, which enabled him to repair his fortune, and coming back to this country he started in once more as a capitalist. In 1890 he parchased from Thomas M: Edison his electrical manufacturing interests, and with the Edison Lamp Company of Newark, N. J., and the Edison Works at Schenectady, N. Y., as a basis, organired the Edison General Electric Courpany, of which he became president, serving in that enpacity for about two years. In October, 1889 he became chairman of the Northern Pacific board of directors, but the panic of 1866 again occasioned the loss of most of his fortune and led to his withdrawn! from railroad manage-

A very pleasant scene was enacted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Renton, Ewa plantation, Tuesday evening, the occasion being the presentation of a handsome cut glass punchbowl and cups by the employes of the plantation, in commemoration of their host and hostess' crystal wedding anniversary. Both Mr. and Mrs. Renton were taken completely by surprise, but the former responded to the gift in a neat speech. Light refreshments were served later in the evening.

HONOLULU STOCK EXCHANGE.

A good house greeted the new pro-HONOLULU, Wednesday, Nov. 21, 1900. Bid Asked gram at the Orpheum last evening. and the entire bill went through smoothly. The opening act is perhaps the best yet given on the Orpheum stage, its costuming and stage arrangement being most commendable. Adams' new song, "What Ho, She Bumps," with a local verse, has made a big hit, while a new operatic selection shows his versatility. Conlon & Ryder have a clever parody on the Blue and the Gray, and Deming & Carroll help along the merriment. The rest of the program is new and up to the mark. The orchestra has been greatly augmented and strengthened by the arrival of Mr. Ensign, clarionet, who came down from the coast with Manager Cohen.

While in San Francisco Mr. Cohen made most satisfactory arrangements with the Western Amusement Association, and in future the artists will be gleaned from the pick of the successes playing at Fischer's and the Chutes. This connection with the circuits assures the arrival of none but first-class performers in future, and the results should be all that the most exacting of patrons can desire.

Ah Tim Still Drives.

Ah Tim was in police court again cured a reduction of the fine by Judge Humphreys to $50.
